1. The Hungarian Ministry of War has a plan which calls for the mobilization of 400,000 conscripted soldiers, presumably in the event of hostilities. It is also reported that 600,000 uniforms have been ordered and are currently being manufactured in Hungary, a number of them in smaller shops.
2. Eight thousand automatic pistols and 7,000 light machine guns have recently arrived from the Soviet Union and are stored on a side street near Ludovic on Ulloi Utca in Budapest. Two hundred and forty horse-drawn cannons have also been received. All are reportedly new Soviet weapons for use by the Hungarian Army. Forty tanks have also been received by the Ezstergom Tank School. Thirty of these are old weaponless tanks (Soviet type) which will be used for training. The other ten are new with 102 mm guns.
3. There are now seven or eight Russian military directors of the Hungarian State railways. These officers are thought to comprise the Military Transport Command for the Soviets in Hungary.
